

Screw

Tudor Priscope

...Something as simple as a construction project...

...I see something more to it.

... And I cannot tell whether it's good or bad.

The only thing I can do is to shower myself in thought.

Screwdriver, screwdriver

It either builds, or destroys.

It can put things together or take things apart.

The use of it can change

And us humans are but the same.

Us humans build, and destroy.

It's the sophisticated balance of life.

Yet one thing doesn't add up.

Humans prefer to be destructive.

Anything to ruin each other.

But the light of building remains.

Maybe...

Bringing true peace...

Requires all of us to help build.

For we are the only ones who can do it.

The End.
